

March 28, 2018

Novi teen becomes writing ambassador

Novi Middle School's Krisha Ramani graduated from the One Earth Writing Ambassadors program

NOVI – Nine Oakland County teenagers, including Novi Middle School's Krisha Ramani, graduated from the One Earth Writing Ambassadors program this week.

One Earth Writing Ambassadors are teenagers who want to be leaders, like to write, enjoy making friends from different backgrounds, and seek to build the skills needed to make a difference in their communities. The program is led by founder Lynne Golodner, writing instructor Christina Weaver and program coordinator Dana Nyquist.

All of this year's graduates, with the exception of Ramani, are high school students. Ramani is in seventh grade.

The 2018 winter Ambassadors program was supported by a grant from the First Foundation of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham. Teens interested in applying for the 2018 fall Ambassadors program can submit a letter of application and writing sample by CLICKING HERE.